

Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (Direct) 2008

3/18/2009 - 6/17/2009

Grant Applicant	Project Title	County	$ Federal	$ Local	Project Description
Brown County District Attorney	Juvenile Prosecutor	Brown	$17,470	$1,941	The grant is used to fund a full-time juvenile prosecutor.
Dane County Department of Human Services	Accountability Project	Dane	$45,255	$5,028	Dane County will use the funds for a Weekend Report Center (WRC) and Community Restoration Crew (CRC) WRC provides structured activities. CRC provides a structured community service opportunity with a focus on graffiti removal. There is also a service learning component involved.
Kenosha County Department of Human Services	Community Service Work Program	Kenosha	$18,251	$2,028	The Kenosha County Community Service Work Program provides approximately 2500-4000 hours of supervised community service work opportunities to 100-200 youth annually to complete the conditions of a court order or deferred prosecution agreement.
Milwaukee County Department of Health & Human Services	Firearm Supervision Project	Milwaukee	$77,360	$8,596	This grant will provide Milwaukee County Delinquency Division with the means to support an Assistant District Attorney for the vertical prosecution of these cases. In addition, Milwaukee County will continue to support and sustain, using local funds, accountability programming targeting these youth through the Milwaukee Running Rebels Program.
City of Milwaukee	School Safety Improvement	Milwaukee	$73,156	$8,128	Funding will be used by the City of Milwaukee for the School Safety Improvement Program (SSIP), a collaborative effort between the Milwaukee Police Department, the Milwaukee Public Schools, and two community based youth-serving organizations (Running Rebels and the Latino Community Center). The collaborative provides accountability programming at several area high schools designed to reduce truancy, violent behavior and increase student engagement and grade point averages.

Outagamie County	Truancy and Runaway Assessment Center	Outagamie	$11,199	$1,244	Funding will be used by Outagamie County to continue the Truancy and Runaway Assessment Center (TRAC) at the Boys and Girls Club Fox Valley. TRAC provides a location where law enforcement officers can deliver truant youth to be assessed for services needed to address personal, family, and school-related issues affecting their school attendance. TRAC operations have been developed through the collaborative efforts of Outagamie County, Calumet County, the Boys and Girls Club, area school districts, and area law enforcement.
Racine County Human Services Department	JABG-Community Panel	Racine	$14,105	$1,567	Funds will be used for the Community Panel Program, which is designed to hold youth accountable for their delinquent behavior and to encourage responsible behavior. The program is a diversion program from the court system that gives juveniles apprehended for a misdemeanor or non-violent crime the option of appearing before a panel of community volunteers rather than entering the juvenile court system. The program centers around prevention and early intervention
Rock County Human Services Department	Juvenile Accountability Initiative	Rock	$14,339	$1,593	Funding will provide electronic monitoring as an alternative to detention while continuing to hold youth accountable.
Waukesha County Department of Health and Human Services	Youth Accountability Groups	Waukesha	$18,632	$2,070	This grant will be used for an interactive group process, bringing juvenile offenders and crime victims together, to explore the effects of victimization on individuals and the community.
